

BAI LMS will allow for better distribution of Custom Documents

Last fall, all BAI Learning Manager customers gained access to more than 200 BAI documents and resources in their portals. Then functionality was made available in the BAI Learning Manager giving you the ability to assign documents and track their views.

Today, we are excited to announce that later this month our newest functionality will make documents a fully supported content type in the BAI Learning Manager. This will enable your learners to play, and you to track views of, custom: video files, audio files, URLs and pdfs.

Additionally, this functionality will offer the ability to integrate your custom policies into our catalog creating a centralized policy repository for your learners. Allowing them to quickly reference and save your organizational content important to their role.

For an additional resource, take a look at our previous Product Webinar which provides a demo of BAI Documents and Resources in the BAI Learning Manager. We have also prepared document recommendations for several roles initially to get you a head start. Please visit BAI L&D Connect® to review these materials and learn about what this functionality can do for your organization today!

Upload LinkedIn Learning Classes into the BAI Learning Manager

LinkedIn Learning supports the AICC standard for integration with external Learning Management Systems (LMS). Since the BAI LMS supports the AICC standard, you can download LinkedIn Learning courses and load them into the BAI LMS as unique courses for your learners to complete.

Once LinkedIn Learning courses are loaded into the BAI LMS, you can take advantage of the numerous features within it that are designed specifically for the financial services industry.

These features include:

- Email notifications designed to drive training completions
- A user interface that prioritizes and displays learning by due date
- The ability to track learners' statuses in a course, such as Assigned, In-Progress, Unsuccessful, Successful
- Completion reporting designed specifically for regulatory examination needs
- An assignment engine designed for automated and highly targeted training plans
- Discoverability of LinkedIn Learning courses in the BAI Learning Manager
- And more!

Microsoft Office 2019 & 365 New Courses

They're here! By popular demand, BAI has released new Microsoft Office 2019 and 365 courses. These courses are available to all customers that subscribe to the Professional Skills Series – a library that aims to enhance institutional day-to-day operations and promote organizational leadership development.

Covered topics include:

- Microsoft 365 Word, Excel, PowerPoint, Outlook, OneNote, Yammer, Websites, and OneDrive
- Microsoft 2019 Word, Excel, PowerPoint, Outlook, Visio, SharePoint, OneDrive, and Teams

If you do not currently subscribe to this library and are looking for more information, please reach out to your relationship manager.
